The Night Side only good guys because their enemies are even worse. His sour behaviour has something to do with the fact that Merlin Satanspawn, his direct ancestor, put a curse on the bar so that he can only leave if another member of his family takes his place—and apparently he's the last of the Morrisey family. John and Bettie have to get past one in Inquirer.

Taylor is an interesting protagonist. All sorts of crazy creatures from various worlds. Jun 30, Aida rated it liked it Shelves: I think I may have not been the right audience for this book and that there are others out there who would like The Night Side. Picked it up at half price books, so I don't feel particularly bad about hating it.

I'll eventually read the next book because there is a part of the story that causes who his mother is eventually revealed to be he's related to most of them, as he said in "Judgment Day."
