I think it would also be interesting if the twist were sent in my viewers from different culinary cultures. I checked it out from the At first I was not sure you could go from never cooking a "Can't Cook" as she calls you to picking up this book and making it happen, but once you realize that she gives tips and confidence-builders and even links to video how-tos, you can definitely get there if you put in the effort. Please do a printed book!

Plus I laugh while watching them at work, which is delightful and also embarrassing. So THE question... When can we buy it?! A French Guy Cooking hard copy cookbook would be an exquisite addition to my carefully curated selection of cookbooks! Your recipes are so lovely and simple with great impact! Love the idea Alex!! I haven't made a recipe from it. In addition I have tried several recipes and they turned out very well. If you included sections in your book on how to do ramen from scratch, sourdough bread and a handy guide on spices.
