But overall, if you would like to read a thought provoking or interesting biography, keep looking. And yes Levi is a huge low life She is trying to make her son have a good life, who can fault her for that?

Perhaps Bristol felt the need to explain or even defend herself and her son. If

I don't know that as a teenager or as an adult that I would be able to handle it. There are no discussion topics on this book. I think a lot of teens struggle with .

Bristol Palin has obviously led quite a sheltered life. I was also amused at the way Meghan in her book talks about how the Palins were always wearing expensive clothes and she was wearing cheap clothes, and Bristol writes the opposite, that Meghan bragged about her expensive taste and she wore cheap clothes although Bristol talks about having boxes and boxes of designer jeans But I otherwise found this a frustrating read.
