Humanitarian aid Abby Howell and reporter Nick Sinclair find themselves in the middle of a human trafficking ring in Pakistan. Not after Abby visits the refugee camp and witnesses, first hand, the deplorable conditions, the lack of basic necessities, and the wall filled to overflowing with pictures of "The Lost" -- children who had just disappeared and had probably been sold by human traffickers. The savagery of modern society has grown out of a return to Paganism. DaleneMatthee, CirclesinaForestaboutanAfrikanerwoodcutter'ssonhow Refresh and try. Together, Abby and Nick must work out how the dead woman is connected to Abby's work, who the killer may be, and how they can avoid becoming victims themselves. It was just that since Abby was working for the UN, I thought she would be a little familiar with human trafficking.
