Join us to support Unformed Landscape discussion on critical issues. Overall, I found this book overwhelmingly negative in that practically every character was leading such a bleak and flawed existence with no hope in site. No trivia or quizzes . Randy is distracting. This book made me so mad. There was a problem adding your email address.

Though she's never in her 28 years traveled below the Arctic Circle before, she had pictured worlds to herself, wonderful, colorful worlds. The simplicity of the author's style is almost provocative, but by the end you feel that he has touched upon a universal truth, as inescapable as the rhythm of lightness and darkness Unformed Landscape the North.
