I started my motherhood out with a thud. If you want something Always Allie to happen, something beautiful, freeing, and amazing, if you want Always Allie change the direction of your motherhood, you're going to have to do something different. So the next morning, I poured my coffee, made breakfast, and sent them in the playroom to play as usual.

I was dead dog tired. He did it over the course of two nights, and the cost?

Motherhood is not an exception to this! Even so, there will always be the temptation to covet something of someone else's. I was emotional, stressed out, trying to get the house ready for a birthday party. Time together is worth it. Thanks for being so sweet and flexible!
