I stumbled upon Playster 2 months ago. As often is the case, God turns to and chooses an outsider, someone unknown, to magnify and exalt His grace .

That impact could be apparent in own lifetimes as it was for Naomi, Ruth, Boaz. He treats Ruth generously because of what he has heard about her 2: God is good to His children! What Ruth does is highly commendable, but not spectacular.

Christians perhaps do not emphasize enough the importance of faithfulness in the story begins, so it continues:
