For some reason, my parents let him talk to me whenever he would call because they bought into his God stuff and liked how he sent me ALF crap. The look of shock my dad had is what I remember most about. His wish was filled, and some short time after that he was gone. I remember this vividly. My brother was walking up the back stairs when he remembered that he had left his pancakes in a to go container sitting on a speaker in the basement. Download The Ghost Next Door: Lookout the window...you see cornfields and scraggly trees. It was that of a woman, just like what my grandma had seen.
