What does it mean to "call on the name of the Lord"? And so, now, in a stagecoach,—on a steam-boat,—on a rail-road car,—in a remote hut where a traveller may tarry for a night,— on the ocean,—in a foreign land,—in a hospital, far away from home and friends, from mother, sister, daughter, pastor,—in a Christian sanctuary which may be casually attended,—the voice of a stranger may be heard; and shall it be deemed extravagant to believe that the feet of the stranger may have been guided in order that he might speak to that soul about the way of salvation? You can read more about Bethel, Ai, and the Negev in the Introduction.

For what will it profit a man, if he gain the whole world and forfeit his life? He could speak to us by dreams or visions, as He did to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Eliphaz; He could address us by a voice, as He did Samuel; He could send a special messenger to us, as He did to Ahaz, to Ahab, to David, and to Hezekiah; He could direct an angel to convey a message to us, as He did to Daniel, to Zacharias, and to the Virgin Mary; He could call us to His service by an internal voice which we could not disregard, as He did Jeremiah and Ezekiel; or He could speak to us in His majesty and glory, as He did to Isaiah in the temple, to Saul on the way to Damascus, or to John in Patmos. He went out to go into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance.

The account of Abraham's life seem to begin with a simple genealogy. Who does is one of the brightest excellencies in faith's actings. Abraham himself was, for Lot's sake, to gird on his sword, and go forth to fight, peace-lover as he .
