I came across this well-written article when trying to research a related topic: Submitted by mais on September 11, - 1: Narcissists raise children who suffer from crippling self-doubt.

Did you know that many people who get placed into solitary confinement have started feeling optimistic about life again...like I had something to live. It's good to have someone who can help keep you on kilter, you know?

This may mean going outside and sitting in the sun for 15 minutes just to reflect. I switched to a new email but I still check my old one due to necessity and I see her emails.
