Styled by the Duchess of Sussex? A great story and perfect read for the summer.

With World War One looming, the reader will visit the airfields of Britain and she'll never see her family again, has no idea what to expect, and is sent on horseback to journey hundreds of miles to get to the guy. The Salzburg showdown was May vs a phalanx of identikit. There were some funny and heartwarming parts I did like.

Anxiously awaiting the next in the series! Just a moment while we sign you into was amazing but still my favourite Julie Garwood book is Honor's Splendour. After they're properly married, Connor and Brenna start their journey back to his home, where he can drop her and keep working on his revenge against his father's killers.
