I do think that, out of the three stories, the third one was my favourite. In connection with several other books of mine, it has been of great benefit to me to make use of different meditation and fantasy journey techniques.

I'm actually assuming that, timeline-wise, the second story comes before the first. I wish there was a little bit more details placed in reference to Amiel, the Scintillate, Mira and in random areas in the stories. Want to Read Currently Reading Read.
