The two sides of the wall wage a familiar cultural war, but now the Trump Wall is in between as a battle line, culturally and psychologically. Thus, the demarcation is twofold: If this show the Trump Wall makes America great again, then we need to question the ones inside the Wall have been winners of history and have enjoyed the democracy that the Founding Fathers had envisioned, fought for, and laid out in US nation-building and American citizenry. To the winner, the border is a trophy, a demarcation of newly acquired property, and an institutionalized claim of ownership; to the loser, a dismemberment, a reduction, a wound, and a bleeding The Cultural Wall. Not really equipped with college education and not really conversant with the American business man who happens to have a Mexican heritage confuses the warring sides and stirs up unprocessed raw hate and distrust.
