I remember even suggesting to Salman that if he changed the title to The Heavenly Verses if the novel didn't look like the Devil's work in the bookshops, the threat might evaporate. One way of doing so is by opposing popular and academic discourses. This was in October almost four months before the fatwa.

There is no single unified voice but there exists a variety of voices. Islamic They burned books in the street, they bayed for blood outside parliament and waved "Rushdie must die" placards. The point is, lives came to an end due to an ideological conflict.
