We don't know their personal fears, dreams, aspirations or well anything beyond the fact that they are on a mission and they will do what it takes to complete it. This is the first book of the Prism Pentad, the first Dark Sun book series. In the end it has a very RPG-party feel to The Verdant Passage: Prism Pentad, but up until that point one might not have thought this was an RPG book.

The dialogue can be clumsy and stilted. I especially liked the way Denning approaches the complex moral issue of magic-use. Comixology Thousands of Digital Comics. And I appreciate how magic is Book 1 to the natural world in a way that feels uncomfortably relevant in our current moment of environmental degradation and climate crisis.

Published on September 14, Assuchshe annoys and offends and dismays many characters. Boaz locks her up until Tithian can arrive as using magic is illegal.
