Nov 13, Cruth rated it liked it Shelves: Now my new favorite is Ellie Smith. Rachel and Nate were adorable characters that I was rooting for them to figure out they were meant to be together from the first moment Home for Christmas was a scrumptious read.

Haven't read any of Melissa's books in the past but I'm looking forward to reading it. But the way he finally chose to show Rachel how he really felt was I think the sweetest thing I have ever seen. Dec 20, Dorothy Morawsky rated it it was amazing.

So he needs to convince Rachel to stay. She hadn't participated in extracurricular activities at school, had been forced to give up things like dance classes and piano lessons, or anything other children her age were allowed to take part in. Rachel is a success at selling her baked goods, especially gingerbread houses, with Matt's marketing expertise.
