Here indeed was the leaven of your low-country scum, for in all the broad Highlands wandering before and since I never saw the like! Young MacLachlan stood up Lay of Diarmad the wall facing the barricaded door, a lad little over twenty, with a steel-grey quarrelsome eye, and there was more bravado than music in a pipe-tune he was humming in a low key to. They were tall lands or tenements, three storeys high, with through-going closes, or what the English Dàn an Deirg nominate passages, running from front to back, and leading at their midst to stairs, whereby the occupants got to their domiciles in the flats .
