We know we may have been putting in too many hour weeks in a row, and we can feel the side effects of making that kind of commitment. Besides being a good practice in general, its Karmic benefit comes from the intention of clarity and purity. You are a witness of yourself. With close friends, we can also tell them what they do that means the most to us. What goes out will come back in the same proportion. You know heading into that transaction that you're going to go out of balance. But that's the only body you're going to get and it needs to carry you until the end. As a life coach, there are multiple inventories I use to help people become more self-aware.
