The third theme is in a minor key and modulates through many different keys before modulating into C major. Complete Works for Piano. StreamsVideosAllPosts. The re-introduction of the first subject in the above unusual key renders this sonata specially notable, as few examples of the device are to be met. The third movement is in rondo form and is in the tonic key, C major. Figure 12 shows all the progressions employed in the composition.

This closing statement is embellished with grace notes and, after the first of these tonal centers are established with tonic to dominant motion. Only the first sentence of Part I is repeated.
