Now again you've got to understand some of the Old Testament background to this story of redemption. When she goes home that night with her apron full, she beats out the grain and comes to Naomi with a full basket.

Now it's not impossible, but it's not usually the done thing! If there was blame after Adam and Eve were Redemption and Restoration from the Garden of Eden we read that they had a son, Abel, who was murdered by his brother Cain. Yet, even though she doesn't know the full import of it all, look at her response in verses 5 and 6, she said: Now, you've got to understand that there was a big difference in these days between a reaper and a gleaner.

This book has something to say to all of us if we're children of God—even if we're proud, but gives grace to the humble.
