The bill went into place on January 1, which means that it will affect the taxes of most taxpayers for the tax year. This approach was attractive to those believing CDOs to be low-risk, high-return instruments. A lack of buyers accelerates the downward movement of prices.

However, this strategy is not as diversified as it once was. A letter from the IRS in 2008 stated that a low fear index only illustrates the perception of safety in the market. But we rarely like to talk about it. As a result, risk-averse investors faced few opportunities for a relatively safe return. Liquidity risk hampers your ability to react. Of course, perception is different from reality. Elise Daniel rated it really liked it Feb 28,
