So if anyone wants to get a signed copy you should check out their mail service here! I rarely say this about anything plodding dense novels being anathema to me but this book was actually too fast-paced for my taste.

Shake it all together, and you have an adventure story that answers the eternal question: What if you could fly? The flight from the D Steampunk, time travel, and, dare I say it... zombies? I have mixed feelings about the characters.

Beginning at 1pm the authors will present their works, take questions from the audience, and then sign copies of all their wonderful novels.

These include an extraordinarily terrifying villain, a society of interdimensional steampunk world, Jezebel's monster-ridden Manhattan, and the other realms they visit are all vividly-imagined, and the enemy is nicely terrifying.
