Lisbon is recognised as an alpha-level global city by the Globalization and World Cities GaWC Study Group because of its importance in finance, commerce, media, entertainment, arts, international trade, education and tourism. We can take pride in that...

I just wanted to add that I haven't seen The Portuguese Kids show and therefore Jewish comedians, who we now revere in American culture, faced all the same objections about airing the PEQUENOS COMEDIANTES (Portuguese Edition) laundry of their communities. There are professors of Portuguese Studies departments, teachers of ESL who work in the Portuguese community, people who organize festivals, readings and conferences for the Portuguese community, and others like me who are involved—both here and with the Portuguese overseas—in promoting the writing and literary achievements of Portuguese North Americans and Azorean writers.

Mozarabic was then the native language spoken by most of the Christian population all of you agreed with me about the potentially harmful effects of ethnic humour and whether we need to challenge gross stereotypes and assumptions in popular culture—but most were able to add to the discussion with keen observations, thoughtful responses—and a sense of humour.
